He has been for many years a director of the Liberty and Independent Mutual Fire Association. He has enjoyed the respect of all who knew him. He was twice married and leaves a widow who was Miss Sidney Schriver, and the following children by his first marriage: Mrs. John Eckert of Gettysburg, and Miss Edna Schriver of Philadelphia, and Wm. An entire corps camped on her farm, and the soldiers took everything in the way of cows, horses, chickens and growing crops to be found, completely denuding the farm. She leaves three sons and two daughters, Elliott P. Mickley of Waynesboro, John H. Mickley, Mervin O. Mickley and Mrs. H. A. Bucher, of Cashtown, and Mrs. T. F. Cover of Covington, Va. She was the mother-in-law of George D. Thora of Harrisburg. She is survived by one brother and three sisters, Emanuel Stover of Miles, Kan., Mrs. Jennie Stover of Dixon, Ill., Mrs. Benjamin Lehman of Chambersburg, and Mrs. Adnar Kuhn of Cashtown.

Wolf of Arendtsville, then took him to the Harrisburg Hospital and on last Saturday the rigidity of muscles was reported to be abating and chances for recovery better. He had been given 300,000 units of the tetanus serum. He was a son of Jacob C. Smith of Wrenksville and a member of Lutheran Church of that place and a member of the Menallen township School Board. His wife died four years ago. He leaves two small sons, Charles A. and Robert M., also his father, two sisters and four brothers. Mrs. Willis Eppelman of Aspers, Mrs. Elias Hoffman, Harvey, Franklin and William Smith of Wrenksville, and Rev. M. E. Smith of Bloomsburg. He graduated from Gettysburg College last June after spending five years here, a great favorite among the college and town people. He had entered the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania where he fell a victim to the fever. The funeral held on Saturday, was attended by a number of his Sigma Chi Fraternity brothers and classmates. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Sinzell, and one brother, C. Milton Sinzell.

She leaves four children, Mrs. J. F. Klunk of McSherrystown, Peter Riser of Hanover, Miss Maggie Riser and Vincent Riser at home.

FRANK WEIR, a miller living midway between Littlestown and Silver Run, was caught in a shaft while at work on Tuesday of last week and received injuries from which he died an hour later. A farmer in mill witnessed accident. Mr. Weir was caught in belt and called to farmer to stop machinery but the farmer was unfamiliar with the machinery and took some time to bring it to a stop. Mr. Weir's legs were badly crushed and his body bruised and cut. ## PARENT-TEACHERS MEETING

PROF. A. R. WENTZ GIVES SUGGESTIONS ON BIBLE READING.

The Question of Social Centers at Our School Houses was Discussed.

The attendance was large at the regular December meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association on last Friday evening, Mrs. Wm. Arch. McClean presided with following program:

After music by a portion of the High School Orchestra, Prof. A. R. Wentz of Gettysburg College spoke on the new law requiring ten verses of the Bible to be read each day in school. He referred to the history of the world in which there had been three kinds of government from the religious point of view, the Church Stateism in which the Church had dictated to the State and the Church Stateism in which the State had dictated to the Church and the present system in which Church and State are separate independent institutions, but because of the fact that in the history of the world no nation had survived that failed to give its citizens moral training it was deemed advisable that the reading of the Bible for such purpose was imperative. He called attention to the language of the new act that excluded denominationalism in the reading and that the reading was to be in the interest of good moral training of a life of honorable thought and of good citizenship and that school children should have lessons of morality brought to their attention during their school days. The requirement of the new law demanded an intelligent reading of the Bible and this could only be done under a system, omitting certain portions as the stories of the wars in the Old Testament that would not be as helpful for good moral training as other portions. Prof. Wentz advised a system so that the teacher would know days and weeks ahead what was to be read. He was opposed to the reading of the Old Testament to the exclusion of the New and thought both should be read for the lessons of morality therein contained. He was of the opinion that Moulton's book on Bible Reading would be helpful to the teachers and closed his talk by advising the reading of the stories of Joseph, of Moses and of David in the Old Testament, that these stories would present ideals of morality of great value to every child. By all means he advised the reading of the story of the man Christ Jesus, whose life presented the example of the real moral life to be lived by mankind.

The High School Orchestra gave another selection and in the short time they have been organized showed the excellent training they have had.

Upon reports of committees being asked for Mrs. Gise made the report for the Visiting Committee. She expressed delight of the committee over the condition of the schools. The had been in the lower grade school and heard the small children tell a story from a picture card held in the hand. They had been in the manual training department and had seen boys working with saws and hammers and recalling the many occasions when a housewife must drive a nail or saw a board, the committee thought the girls should be encouraged to go into this department. They had been in the domestic science department and believed that in this new feature there was going to go out to the town a new message of house-keeping efficiency that would be a great benefit to the place. They remarked the uniform cleanliness of the rooms and how in one room there had been some paper scattered on the floor and how the children at a signal soon had this litter gathered up and room in order. The cheerfulness of the rooms was to be noted, teachers interested in their work and giving a warm welcome to all visitors.

The social center idea was briefly discussed. This idea is a growing one throughout the country, that the school buildings built by the people should be for the use of the people, for the use of parents and children beyond school age when not being used for school purposes. That the school houses should be given over in the evenings under supervision to many social purposes. Mr. Forth told of two places he knew of where the social center idea had been successful in bringing men and boys together under influences that had been highly beneficial. Other speakers feared it would be another evening attraction for school children. Among those who spoke on the subject were Mrs. H. M. Roth, Miss Helen Cope, Mrs. Mary Power and Prof. Calvin Hamilton.

The Visiting Committee for next month was announced as Mrs. D. F. McPherson, Mrs. Stansbury, Mrs. Salie McMillough, Mrs. Wm. A. Martin, Mrs. J. Elmer Musselman and Mrs. Evaline Holzworth.

The program committee named for January was Mrs. J. L. Munner, Miss Rachel Scott and Wilson Broom. Before taking the vote for the banner which was won by Miss Ruth school, Prof. W. A. Burgeon called attention to a very serious problem which faced the schools of the town. A number of the schools contained as many pupils as they would hold. The room the teachers needed for classes had been appropriated in a number of cases. In the High School Building, the halls had to be used for school purposes, and the library room. That the incoming senior class numbered 20 and the incoming class now in sight was 56. That the building was now crowded and what was to be done with 36 additional scholars was a serious problem about which the town people and school authorities should be thinking and preparing for.

More of Honsinger Woman.

According to dispatch from Sunbury, Pa., Anna Honsinger, or Mrs. Edgar Warren, found dead with M. F. Rebert of this place with throats cut, was well known in Sunbury, having married M. M. Rote, a business man of that place in 1897. Mr. Rote conducts a tin shop and in 1906 secured a divorce from her on statutory grounds. They had one son, 16 years old, living now with his maternal grandparents. The dispatch said that Mr. Rote, the divorced husband, attended to the funeral services and will pay all the expenses of the burial of the woman at her home in Union county.

Charles Harbold, the driver of the cab, has recovered from the shock of the tragedy and returned to his work on a baggage wagon, the line he had been regularly employed upon, but when he was injured in lifting a heavy trunk he was given a cab until he should recover. Having recovered from injury and shock he went back to the baggage wagon and it is believed he will never drive a cab again at night.

Biglerville Show Dec. 31, Jan 1, 2, 3

The management of the big show at Biglerville is busy getting the coops put up and everything will be ready by the end of this week. Next week the three buildings will be wired and connected with the Cold Storage plant to furnish electric light during the show. Entries for poultry are coming in and it is expected to have a much larger entry than last year.

Mr. C. C. Cornman, one of the judges will be at the show building all week especially the first three days and any person wishing any of their birds scored to see where they lack the standard requirements can have it done by arranging with the Secretary any time after the judging is over. Any information regarding the care and preparation of poultry the judge will be required to give to the best of his ability. F. G. Wiles of Terford, Pa., the other judge, will give a lecture on Poultry for Profit, Wednesday evening at seven o'clock, to which all the public is invited.

The poultry breeders of Adams county should make large entries and help make this the largest show in the State. This county has the poultry and it should be represented at this show. Entry blanks must be filled out and sent to the Secretary, O. C. Rice, Biglerville, not later than Saturday, Dec. 20th.

F. M. Fagan of State College, Pa., will judge the apples and all entries must be in by Dec. 27. There are large cash premiums on apples and we expect to have many people here from other States and we want a large display of apples. The large $30 silver cup will be offered for the best display of apples exhibited on plate.

W. E. Hanger, from College Park, Md., will judge the corn. The corn will be exhibited in lots of ten ears and entry fee of ten cents for each ten ears will be charged. Persons can make as many entries in each class as they desire.

D. M. Minnick of Chambersburg will judge the potatoes, and they will be exhibited in half bushel lots and a fee of ten cents for each half bushel will be required.

The large exhibit of automobiles will be an added attraction. It is expected to have all the different machines that are sold and represented in Adams county on exhibition during the show and parties will be able to see and compare the different makes.

Every person interested in making Adams county one of the leading counties for the exhibition of her products should send and get their neighbors interested in exhibiting. Remember the dates that all entries close and have your entries in on time and help make this one of the greatest shows in Pennsylvania. An admission of 15 cents or season tickets at 25 cents can be had. Refreshments and lunch can be had in one of the buildings and other exhibits of nursery trees, stoves, machinery, spray outfits and supplies and other articles too numerous to mention will be there.

Massachusetts's State Memorial.

Colonel E. O. Skelton and Ralph Adams Cram, two of the three members of the Massachusetts' Commission recently appointed for the purpose of placing a memorial on the battlefield of Gettysburg, as a State Memorial in honor of the sons of Massachusetts who fell in this battle, visited Gettysburg last week, arriving here Tuesday evening with Colonel Lewis E. Beiler and were quartered here at the Eagle Hotel. They went over the battlefield on Wednesday, and were in favor of selecting an arch as the form of the Memorial and placing it over the entrance to Hancock Avenue on the Taneytown road. An appropriation for preliminary expenses has been made and this Commission is expected to report to next session of the Massachusetts legislature. The members of the Commission went from here to Washington, to place before the War Department their decision as to form of memorial and the location and it is likely that the arch at point named will be reported to the Massachusetts legislature with an appropriation of about $50,000 for the erection of the memorial.

LINCOLN WAY MEETING.

Names of Streets Asked to be Changed to Lincoln Way.

The "Lincoln Way" was the theme of a meeting held in Chambersburg on last Friday evening, which was attended by a number of citizens from this place. Those present were Senator D. F. McPherson, S. S. N. B. Wm. Herch, J. Donald Swaney, J. Harry Holzworth, John D. Keith, John W. Brehm, Sam and White, Prof. Geo. M. Rice, David J. Farney, W. L. Hafer, C. A. Stoner and Wm. Duncan.

The guest of the evening was Vice President Partridge of the Lincoln Way Association, and he was welcomed on behalf of Adams county by Mr. Neely, who said Adams county was preparing to make the Lincoln Way from the Franklin county line to York county line and a movement was also on foot to change the name of Chambersburg and York streets in Gettysburg to the Lincoln Way. Hon. John W. Hoke welcomed the visitor on behalf of Franklin county.

Mr. Partridge said he felt kindly to this community as Gettysburg and Chambersburg are the only towns of historic interest on the great highway. He gave as another reason that when latter town was in flames in July '64 he was born and said that in the battle of Gettysburg his mother and father each lost a brother. He said it was the purpose of the Lincoln Way Association to build a highway from coast to coast that will be as durable as the name it bears. After going over the route of the highway he suggested that both Chambersburg and Gettysburg take action at once to change the name of the streets through which the highway passes so that these two towns of great historic interest might show the way to the Western States. Aurora, Ill., has already changed the name of its main street.

At the close of his talk Mr. Partridge suggested that the Lincoln Way through the county be marked at once, that signs be placed at each end of town with the name of town and mileage to New York and San Francisco, also recommended that the memorial arch in Memorial Square, Chambersburg, be made a permanent affair of concrete construction.

In closing he referred to the people who had contributed to the enterprise and stated that he would rather have 200 men give $5 each to the project, than one man give $1,000.

St. Francis Xavier Church Improved.

The congregation of the St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, and the pastor, Rev. Fr. Boyle, have good cause for gratification over their recent jubilee celebration following the re-opening of their church. The celebration followed a bazaar at which over $1100 was realized and this with the contributions of the congregation was sufficient to pay for the repairs to the church going on for the past four months and costing over $3000.

The church must be seen to realize its beauty and its artistic finish. The interior of the church has been made over with a blending of colors that is most attractive and the picture adornment is very beautiful.

The picture that represents the best work of the artist and will attract the attention first, is that of Murillo's immaculate Conception in the center of the ceiling of the church. This painting as well as the Medallion heads of the twelve apostles and of the patron saint of the church, St. Francis Xavier and of St. Joseph on the side walls, were painted by the artist, F. Baraldi in his Philadelphia studio on canvas and have been artistically mounted on the wall. The new frescoing and ornamentation adding to the effect. The church repainted and with a handsome green carpet in the aisles also contributes to the beauty of the new interior.

The chancel of the church has been wonderfully improved. On either side of the altar are the beautiful new paintings of the Mater Dolorosa and the Agony of Christ in the Garden. The floor of the chancel has been finished in an attractive design of tile and the ceiling is composed of ornamental emblems of the mass, the bread and wine, with seven gifts of the Holy Ghost, Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Knowledge, Fortitude, Piety and Fear of the Lord, and these gifts as from the Holy Ghost represented by a Dove. The altars, statuary and stations of the cross have all received attention so that the interior of the church presents a most complete and pleasing appearance, and having been fully paid for will be enjoyed with great gratification by the congregation and their pastor.

A Reviewer Points to Cashtown as
Answering all the Suggestions
Pointed out in Book.

Professor Joseph K. Hart of the University of Washington, recently wrote a book on "Educational Resources of Village and Rural Communities." A review of the book was presented in The Churchman, of New York City by one who signed the initials H. P. to the review article. The reviewer says:

Professor Hart and his associates endeavor in this book to interest the social leaders of rural communities in the latent, unknown, unrelated and undeveloped possibilities of their environment. But it is evident that they have never seen Cashtown. If they had ever seen Cashtown, their papers would be more optimistic.

Cashtown is a mile of a village, truly rural, on the southern border of Pennsylvania. It has history. General Lee and his army stopped there on the way to their tragic defeat at Gettysburg. It has no railroad, only the threat of a future trolley out from Chambersburg. But it is a model village, the original "Spotless Town" of the advertisements. Every house is painted; every garden is neat. Its single street delights the eye. There is even a "Civic League" in Cashtown and signs are posted on the hills behind the village, requesting, very politely, that strangers should not injure the shrubbery nor leave refuse about—"by order of the Civic League." Cashtown has anticipated all the sanitary, educational, economic, recreational, social and religious suggestions contained in this book.

But rural communities like Cashtown are rare. Professor Hart's work is needed in many places to stimulate efforts for moral and material betterment.

Notes from C. V. S. Normal School.

Thanksgiving Day was observed in all the departments of the school. In the Model School, exercises were held on Wednesday morning, consisting of recitations, instrumental and vocal music. In the Normal department, no classes were held, and at eleven o'clock A. M. the students were addressed in the Normal Chapel, by Rev. Ludwig, formerly of Gettysburg. In the evening a play "Ingomar, the Barbarian," was rendered, under the auspices of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. There were nineteen characters, among whom were: Miss Alma Fiesel, of New Oxford, and Mr. Herbert Meckley of Abbotstown, who impersonated as Greeks. Mr. Amos Snyder of Littlestown and Mr. Edgar Lower, of Biglerville impersonated as barbarians.

Dr. Lehman, the school principal, spoke at the institutes, held in Adams York, Juniata, Fulton, Franklin, Blair and Cumberland counties. He gave the students a very interesting report of the Adams Co. institute, and the alumni banquet.

The students are all anxiously awaiting the Christmas vacation, which begins December eighteenth and ends January fifth at which time the school expects a number of new students to be enrolled.

A Press Club has been organized under the directions of the principal, Dr. Lehman, and the English instructor, Prof. Wallize. The following Adams Co. students are members: Pres. Mr. Herbert Meckley, Abbotstown; Vice Pres. Mr. John Stock, New Oxford; Rec. Sec., Miss Margaret Lerew, New Oxford; Asst. Sec., Miss Alma Fiesel; New Oxford; Reporter to the Principal, Mr. Edgar Lower, Biglerville. Some of the other Adams county members are: Messrs. Amos Snyder, Earl Herting and Alfred Mc Clauslin. The club's motto is: "For the Good of the School."

The following Adams Co. students are now teaching in Model School:

Seniors, Miss Elizabeth Sheads, Fifth grade, Language and Nature, also Reading and Spelling. Mr. Herbert Meckley, Seventh Grade Grammar.

Juniors, Miss Margaret Lerew, Ninth Grade Algebra.

Miss Grace Byers, Seventh Grade Reading and Spelling. Miss Alma Fiesel, Ninth Grade Grammar.

The basketball team has played three of this season's games, and has lost one game.

Some Adams County teachers lately visited their Alma Mater, among whom were: Miss Ruth Deardorff, who visited her sister Miss Lolita Deardorff of the Freshman class. Miss Clara Spangler, who was a guest of her sister, Miss Genevieve Spangler of the Freshman class.

S. S. Convention.

The Sunday School Convention of the Sixth District was held at the Cashtown Reformed church Wednesday afternoon and evening, Dec. 3rd.

W. D. Reel, special representative of the State Association was present and gave two very interesting and instructive talks on Sunday school work.

The afternoon session was begun with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Hartzell.

Mr. Reel then took up the work and discussed the different departments of the Sunday School, the graded lessons, missions and missionary material, temperance and other points of interest which will help us work harder to try to reach the goal set up by the State Association.

The evening service was opened by

Bible Reading and Prayer by our county Pres. Mr. E. P. Miller.

The district Pres. Prof. Roy Knouss then called the roll and found that there were not more than a half dozen schools represented.

At this session Mr. Reel spoke on "The Four Square Sunday Schools." The walls of that school being represented by 1st Christian Education; 2nd, Evangelism; 3rd, Character Building and 4th, Efficiency and training as the necessary features of a very well conducted Sunday School.

The convention was then favored by a quartette by members of the choir; Rec. Fry Smiling, by Mariou Chroulster; Duet: Mrs. Powers and Miss Heiges; Rec. When the Minister Comes to Tea, by Helen Cook. Rec. Kathryn Orner.

Prof. Knouss closed with a very excellent talk "Building Temples."

To reduce the rates for the fourth zone from eight cents for the first pound and six cents for each additional pound to seven cents for the first pound and four cents for each additional pound.

To reduce the rates for the fifth zone from nine cents for the first pound and seven cents for each additional pound, to eight cents for the first pound and six cents for each additional pound.

Rich Copper Vein.

A vein of native copper four feet thick just ten feet under the surface of the earth, producing about 35 per cent. copper to the ton, has been located on the Charmian mining property, Charmian, Pa., of the United Mining, Milling and Copper Smelting company.

For the past months, Henry Johnson, of Sheffield, England, a metalurgist, has been on the Charmian mines superintending the work of overhauling the smelter, located there. In the meantime he has been prospecting, primarily to locate a gold vein, which exists on that property, and in his search discovered this copper vein.

The ore is the richest ever found on this property, and the opened shaft which has been worked by the Eagle Mining company for a short time, does not produce copper a third as rich as this vein. The length of the vein has not been determined, but Mr. Johnson says that it probably extends from one side of the property to the other.

Native copper is the richest copper that can be secured for the process of separating the impurities cheap and not complicated. The vein discovered is a paying proposition, and better than the members of the company hoped for.

The publishers of The Youth's Companion will, as always at this season, present to every subscriber whose subscription is paid for 1914, a Calendar for the new year. It is a gem of calendar-making. Why Have "Nerves"?

This is the reason why women have "nerves." When thoughts begin to grow cloudy and uncertain, impulses lag and the warnings of pain and distress are sent like flying messages throughout limbs and frame, straightway, nine times in ten, a woman will lay the cause of the trouble to some defect at the point where she first felt it. Is it a headache, a backache, a sensation of irritability or twitching and uncontrollable nervousness, something must be wrong with the head or back, a woman naturally says, but all the time the real trouble very often centers in the womanly organs. In nine cases out of ten the seat of the difficulty is here, and a woman should take rational treatment for its cure. The local disorder and inflammation of the delicate special organs of the sex should be treated steadily and systematically.

Dr. Pierce, during a long period of practice, found that a prescription made from medicinal extracts of native roots, without the use of alcohol, relieved over 90 per cent. of such cases. After using this remedy for many years in his private practice he put it up in form of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that would make it easily procurable, and it can be had at any store where medicines are handled.

Mrs. Lila B. Hawkins, of Zeus, Va., writes: "I had been failing in health for two years—most of the time was not able to attend to my household duties. Female weakness was my trouble and I was getting very bad but, thanks to Doctor Pierce's medicines, I am well and strong again. I took only three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and used the 'Lotion Tablets.' I have nothing but praise for Doctor Pierce's wonderful medicines."

DR. G. M. PHILLIPS WINS

WEST CHESTER NORMAL TO BE TAKEN OVER BY THE STATE.

Dr. Phillips to be Made Principal by the State Board of Education.

The city papers have been giving details of the fight going on for months by the Eyre-Penrose Machine of Chester County to oust Dr. George M. Phillips principal of the West Chester State Normal School. The many friends of Dr. Phillips in this community have been following this fight and were rejoiced to learn last week that Dr. Phillips had in reality won the contest through retiring for a few weeks from the institution of which he has been the head for years and they hope that Dr. Phillips will return to his position according to the claims made by his attorneys and friends. The story of the end of the fight is given as follows:

The long-drawn-out efforts of the Eyre-Penrose forces of Chester county to oust Dr. George M. Phillips, principal of the West Chester State Normal School, succeeded temporarily at least last week. An agreement was reached before Judges Kunkei and McCarrell, of the Dauphin county court, whereby the resignation of Doctor Phillips took place.

The "victory," however, is only a sham, for it is understood that the resignation was agreed upon to "save the face" of the Eyre ring and that the reappointment of Doctor Phillips will take place immediately after the deeds of the school are turned over to the state board of education.

The hearing scheduled in Harrisburg was to decide the permanency or not of an injunction restraining the Eyre-bossed trustees of the normal school from ousting Doctor Phillips as principal.

The Eyre crowd submitted a proposition to counsel for the state board of education that they would abandon opposition to the transfer of the school to the state if Doctor Phillips would resign immediately and under the condition that the board would not reappoint him when the school became the property of the state. Counsel is just as trying and important as your own and perhaps more tedious—but is her strength as great?

Women who are nervous and fretful and easily fatigued promptly gain strength and natural energy by taking Scott's Emulsion after meals because it is essentially nourishment—not a drug that stupefies or alcohol that stimulates—there is pure, rich medical nourishment in every drop which nature appropriates to enrich the blood and upbuild the latent forces of the body.

Probably nothing is more popular with physicians for just such conditions than Scott's Emulsion.

Avoid substitutes called "wines," "extracts" or "active principles"—they are not cod liver oil.

Insist on the genuine Scott's
AT ANY DRUG STORE 15-34
SCOTT'S BOWNE, BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

for the board refused to listen to the plan.

Then the Eyre crowd amended their first proposition by saying that the state board of education could do as it pleased as regards the reappointment of Doctor Phillips after the school became the property of the state. After a two-hour conference, the state board agreed to the compromise, and Judges Kunkei and McCarrell entered a decision as follows, it is said:

"Doctor Phillips is to resign at once, and the trustees in consideration of his resignation, will agree to dissolve all law-suits to hold up the transfer of the school to the state on or before December 30. And on or before that date they will go into the Chester county courts and move that the school corporation be dissolved, whereupon the deeds will be automatically delivered to the state."

The friends of Doctor Phillips base their claims of victory over the Eyre ring in the following stipulations agreed upon between counsel, though not set forth on the court records: First, that no new principal is to be appointed by the present board of trustees, and that if the trustees accept the resignation of Doctor Phillips they are to allow the vice principal, F. P. Starkey, to act as head of the school until the institution is turned over to the state.

Second, that Doctor Phillips is not to be disturbed in his occupancy of his residence, which is owned by the school.

Third, The board of education will meet in West Chester January 2 or 3 and will then select a new board of trustees, consisting of nine members who, will in turn appoint a principal.

William P. Phillips, son of Doctor Phillips, was jubilant over the agreement.

"From what I have heard," he said, "the agreement points to an ultimate victory for Doctor Phillips over the Eyre crowd. There is little doubt that he will be reappointed by the new board of trustees, which will be selected by the board of education."

Back of the demand for the resignation of Doctor Phillips, who for thirty-two years has won country-wide fame as principal of the West Chester State Normal school, is a history of intrigue and financial political scheming, which rivals anything ever attempted in the state. T. "Larry" Eyre, Penrose boss of Chester county's gang, schemed also to be boss of Chester county's famous educational institution, and by stock manipulation, succeeded in his purpose.

Eyre audaciously exploited his boss-ship over the school by compelling it to buy from him and his associates its own stock at more than double the price they paid for it. Doctor Phillips fought against this raid on the school's assets and that is why he won the displeasure of Eyre and his crowd.

No other newspaper has a service equal to that of the World and it relates everything fully and promptly.

The World has long since established a record for impartiality, and anybody can afford its Thrice-A-Week edition, which comes every other day in the week, except Sunday. It will be of particular value to you now. The Thrice-A-Week World also abounds in other strong features, serial stories, humor, markets, cartoons in fact everything that is to be found in a first class daily.

The THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE GETTYSBURG COMPILER together for one year for $1.50.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.

Sicilian Carts.

Of all the vehicles in the world there is none to equal the Sicilian cart, carved, yellow, paneled with lurid paintings that run the gamut of myth and history. One we saw had upon its panels scenes that represented Columbus sailing from Palos and discovering America, a bloody fight round the chancel of Acre, the hermitage of Santa Rosalia, and on its tailboard a vivid picture of the massacre of the Vespers. The carts are never very large, as carts go, but they are so marvelously wrought that they ought surely to come under the provisions of the law that forbids the exportation of any works of art. Wheels, shafts, axles, the edges of sides and posts and tailboards are all worked into neat geometrical designs, and on the axle is a carving built up clear to the bottom of the cart, a mass of intricate scrollwork and gingerbread, in the middle of which sits the patron saint of the fortunate owner—"Vistas in Sicily."

Sleep and Laughter.

People who sleep well quickly recover from an ailment, and for this reason, years ago, sleep was pronounced as one of nature's cures for all diseases. Experiments go to prove that a person who accustoms himself or herself to a full and regular sleep is not so liable to an attack of disease as the person who forgoes his proper rest. Moreover, when attacked by any ailment, a good sleeper recovers the quicker.

"Laugh and live" is a time honored saying, and a famous doctor once recommended one of his patients to try a course of funny stories. The patient, who was suffering from a nervous breakdown through overwork, obeyed the doctor's instructions, and the effect of hearty laughter soon brought him round. The menu recommended was one funny story at each meal with two extra at dinner.

Official Bread.

This is the way to make official bread, given out by the chief cook of the department of agriculture:

"For three pound loaves—make ferment of one ounce cake compressed yeast, one ounce granulated sugar, half ounce salt and twenty ounces water. Place in even temperature for an hour. Weigh four and one-half pounds flour and let it warm. Mix flour and ferment together. Cover mixture and warm for twenty minutes. If dough is too stiff add lukewarm water. After twenty minutes more take up dough with hands slightly greased and fold over and over fourteen times. Cover, set aside for twenty minutes; then fold nine times. After twenty minutes more mold into loaves and bake forty minutes in a steady oven 400 to 410 degrees F. A cup of water in the oven will make a tenderer crust."
